

Press Release

Date: 5th May 2015

Tickets now on sale for private equity's 'After Party' of the year

Future Leaders, a pioneering new programme for the next generation of private equity professionals will officially launch at the Impetus-PEF Transforming Lives Dinner 'The After Party' at the Victoria and Albert Museum on 4 June 2015 from 10pm to 1am.

Future Leaders is delivered by Impetus-PEF, the charity which transforms the lives of disadvantaged 11-24 year olds by ensuring they get the support they need to succeed in education, training and employment. The Future Leaders programme provides unique opportunities for the private equity industry's next generation of professionals to participate in social action and philanthropy, whilst developing their skills and professional networks.

Tickets to the Future Leaders launch event 'The After Party' are now on sale, however places are limited. Guests at the Future Leaders 'The After Party' will be joined by leading figures from the private equity industry who will have attended Impetus-PEF's annual Transforming Lives Dinner, taking place earlier that evening, and will enjoy cocktails and music from leading club DJs Seb and Leo (YOYO).

Tickets cost £150 each or £1,000 for 10. To purchase a ticket please call 020 3473 1008 or email events@impetus-pef.org.uk

Robert Ramsauer, Managing Director in Blackstone's Private Equity Group, and Chair of Future Leaders, comments, "Future Leaders is a great opportunity to bring together the next generation of professionals to help drive social change and to shine a light on the contribution that private equity can and does make to a more just society. The launch of Future Leaders on 4th June will be a great opportunity to celebrate the start of this pioneering and inspiring programme."

David Cruickshank, Chairman, Deloitte, sponsors of the 'The After Party' and supporters of the programme comments, "Deloitte is delighted to be supporting the Future Leaders initiative. Impetus-PEF is one of the leaders in venture philanthropy in the UK, and the partnership with Deloitte will add great value to the programme."

Daniela Barone Soares, Impetus-PEF Chief Executive comments, "Impetus-PEF is delighted to be launching the Future Leaders programme at 'The After Party' on June 4th. Future Leaders provides unique opportunities for participants to access a variety of tailored learning and development activities, as well as to volunteer and access pro bono projects linked to Impetus-PEF's programmes and venture philanthropy model. Impetus-PEF looks forward to inspiring a new generation of industry professionals committed to social change."

Ends

Media Enquiries

Suzi Darsa, PR Manager, Impetus-PEF. Tel: 020 3474 1007 Email: press@impetus-pef.org.uk

Notes to Editors

For more information on Future Leaders and how your organisation can get involved, please contact Harry Mallidis on 0203 474 1005 or email Harry.Mallidis@impetus-pef.org.uk for further information.

Impetus-PEF (Impetus – The Private Equity Foundation) transforms the lives of disadvantaged young people by ensuring they get the support they need to succeed in education, training and employment. It does this by identifying the most promising youth charities and social enterprises and providing them with a combination of long-term funding and sustained strategic advice. This pioneering approach enables its partner charities to reach their full potential, in turn enabling them to reach more disadvantaged young people and to positively impact all our lives for generations to come. For more information, please visit www.impetus-pef.org.uk or call 020 3474 1007.